

In the Chicago Tribune of Saturday, we find a communication from R. D'Unger, a physician who lives at Minneapolis, in which he gives a cure for drunkenness. He alleges that the remedy will cure inebriates of the burning, and seemingly uncontrollable, desire or appetite for strong drink. He claims that it has been thoroughly tried and has proven to be a specific for the cure of drunkenness. Dr. D'Unger in communicating with the Tribune on the subject, says:

Let the inebriate take matter whether he is just getting off, or beginning it, or on a "spree"—begin by taking every two hours one drachm (teaspoonful) of tincture of cinchona (Peruvian bark). This will make him feel good. He can increase the dose to six drachms (teaspoonful) without any danger, and take it in that proportion for ten times a day. It will not destroy his appetite for food. In the course of a few days the anti-pericardial properties of the cinchona begin to take effect, and he begins to feel the cure for the cure, but also for everything in the way of alcohol.

Recently, in this city, a well-known gentleman who has in times past been on his "spree" $1,000 dollars—tried this remedy, telling the various druggists where he drank it that he was going to conquer the greatest demon on earth, but they could hardly believe him. Yet he conquered and the appetite for drink vanished. He was never nervous, never lost his appetite, sleep during the cure, and came out of the ordeal in perfect health. During the time the fever lasted I gave him two or three doses of simple medicine for his general health, but the tincture of cinchona did the business. This case can be verified by the proprietors of our drug stores.

It may be stated here that Dr. D'Unger's remedy has not been sufficiently tested to warrant the assertion that it is a specific in all cases. It has proved successful in one instance merely, and may utterly fail in others. He has such unbounded faith in its virtue that he hopes the absolutely pure Peruvian bark will be obtained, and that it will be put to a most thorough test on other subjects. There are scores of unfortunate individuals in every town and city in the land, who are bound up with chains of steel to strong drink, and if simple Peruvian bark will destroy that uncontrollable desire for intoxicating liquors, and make them sober and industrious men, Dr. D'Unger will be the shining light of the age. Our faith is not yet fixed in the remedy, but we hope it will be severely tried, that we may know how much virtue there is in Peruvian bark to work a temperance reformation.

The Democrats have been badly fooled in taking Jim Knight of this State, as a crippled soldier. We publish his own testimony elsewhere. He has been, as we stated yesterday, appointed assistant door-deeper of the House of Representatives by the Confederate Field, and he appears on the roll of the House as a wounded and crippled soldier. This will make his friends in Wisconsin laugh, who never supposed he had cheek enough to pretend he was a "wounded soldier." For a while he was in the army, and belonged to that class of officers who never smelled powder, but figured in the quartermaster's department. The story of his trials and exposures will be found in another column.

A telegram brings us an account of a cabinet meeting held at the White House yesterday, at which a platform of principles was suggested on which the President and Republican party can both stand. The most important principles, and those which have divorced the President and the party, were not mentioned. The question of catering to the Democratic element in the South to the detriment of the Republican party and in defiance of justice; and the question also of making a farce of civil service, were not taken into consideration. These are the principles which should be settled.

Hon. Horace Rubie, Chairman Republican State Central Committee, returned to Madison on Tuesday, after an absence in Boston since the election. Mr. Rubie is in excellent health, and looks quite stout and rugged after his sojourn in New England. He will remain in the State about a month, and possibly longer. He speaks hopefully of the political situation.

The confession of Mrs. Tilton reveals nothing new. All sorts of speculations are afloat concerning the final result of the fresh eruption. Tilton refuses to be interviewed, and in that respect shows good sense. Mr. Beecher gave greedy newspaper reporters but little comfort. He remains unmoved during the excitement, and seems to have faith that in the end he will be vindicated.

The banks in Iowa will be among the first to make resumption a fact. The Iowa National Bank, and the Citizens' National Bank, of Des Moines, and the First National Bank, of Grinnell, have resumed specie payments. Several banks in New York and other places have also begun to redeem.

Jeremiah S. Black has brought suit against ex-Secretary of War Belknap, to recover $5,000 for services rendered in the impeachment case. Belknap has been unfortunate financially and otherwise, and now lives from hand to mouth.

The bankrupt law will no doubt be repealed, as it should be. It has caused as many "failures" as the hard times. Under its protection many have "failed" and made money.

The Senate on Tuesday confirmed V. W. Bayless receiver of public moneys at the land office at Eau Claire.

STATE GOSSIP.

Twenty miles of track on the North Wisconsin Railroad is to be built from Bayfield southward toward St. Paul during the coming summer.

A contract has been made with Mrs. Emily Chase, of Kenosha, for the exhibition, at the Chicago exposition, of a century plant that is about blooming. It is thirty years old, twelve feet high, and over twenty feet from tip to tip of its branches. While in bloom it grows two feet in a single day.

The Southeastern Wisconsin Sheep-Breeders and Wool-Growers' Association will hold their thirteenth annual public shearing at Cadwell's Prairie, on Friday, May 3, 1878. Extensive preparations are being made to receive and entertain the multitude of spectators that congregate on these occasions to see the shearing of the best specimens of the fine wool sheep of Southeastern Wisconsin.

Mrs. E. D. Masters, living near Jefferson, lost six cows Friday night, very mysteriously. Veterinary Surgeon Charles Smith was called, and pronounces the disease of the milk. Farmers of the neighborhood are somewhat excited over the matter. Mrs. Masters had about thirty head, and was going into the dairying quite extensively.

In 1877 the Lake Superior furnaces shipped 26,658 tons of pig iron valued at $336,385. The total product of copper and iron is thus seen to be $194,574,967, of which at least $125,000,000 has been expended for labor and supplies. There is an average production of nearly $8,000,000 for the past twenty-five years.

A most remarkable case of suspended consciousness is that of Miss Lydia Lindsey, daughter of Mr. Alexander Lindsey, of Plymouth, who, on Wednesday of last week, eight days ago, was thrown into a state of unconsciousness, while undergoing vaccination, in which condition she has since remained, despite the most skillful treatment.

The Racine temple of Honor will soon erect a one thousand dollar hall.

Some excitement exists at Madison over the expectation that the old Middleton distillery case will shortly be reviewed. Mr. J. C. McKinney intends soon to prosecute the case, and leading Madison financiers interested in the original suit, but who had supposed the affairs settled two years ago, are laboring under no small degree of apprehension as the case involves from ten to fifteen thousand dollars.

A woman in Sparta is showing some Spartan determination in retaining the custody of her child. Last March, Fred and his wife Ida Louise, were divorced, and his little girl, seven years old, given in charge of her father. The mother took it away and now refuses to give it up. She was arrested and fined one dollar for contempt of court, but nothing will induce her to part with the child. The court told her to produce the child and the matter would be settled but she would not, and says she will rot in jail before she will give up her daughter. She was remanded to jail. The woman has been married twice since her divorce from Altar in 1873. Number two being killed when she accepted number three.

A majority of the counties in this State are not increasing in population.

A SORE PLACE.

The New Doorkeeper Touches the Democratic Party on the Raw.

Washington, April 15.—The new doorkeeper has played a trick on the Democrats which amazes them. He has appointed as assistant doorkeeper one of the crippled soldiers whose disabilities were so clearly set forth by Mr. Frye of Maine. This gentleman, Mr. J. G. Knight, testified about himself before the Polk Investigating Committee as follows:

Q.—State what was your service in the Union army of the United States during the war of the rebellion. A.—I went into the third Wisconsin Regiment, one of the first of the three years regiments that was organized, and I was in the service until January 1864—pretty nearly three years.

Q.—Were you crippled or disabled by wounds during the war? A.—Not by wounds. I was injured, however, in my legs.

Q.—To what extent? A.—Well, not to any very considerable extent, but so that by spells I am laid up.

Q.—How did it happen? A.—By turning my ankle in drilling. A.—By turning my ankle in drilling.

Q.—Did you consider yourself a disabled soldier? A.—Well, I don't know what the definition of that would be. I consider myself a soldier, and I was disabled in the army for ordinary occupation, but so as not to be fitted for hard manual work.

Q.—You suffered constantly, more or less? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—At times very much? A.—Yes, sir. I have to be very careful about my feet.

Q.—How long did it lay you up? A.—I was laid up then for a few weeks, and it has always been an injury to me since.

Q.—Were you able to walk on it with-in two or three weeks after the injury? A.—I was able to walk with care in a short time.

Q.—When was it? A.—In 1861.

Q.—And you served until 1864? A.—Yes but not on foot, on a horse.

Q.—You were in an infantry regiment? A.—Yes, sir; Third Wisconsin.

Q.—How then, did you get on a horse? A.—I was made Quartermaster of the regiment.

The Democrats seem to think that no matter what Mr. Knight's merits may be, that after all the ridicule they have suffered because of their soldier's roll, that the new doorkeeper, considering the circumstance under which he was appointed, might have saved them a reopening of this painful subject.

They stood up before a window, looking out upon the wintry day. The cheerful fire on the hearth sent its ruddy glow into the room. They were man and wife. Said she with enthusiasm:

"Is it not a grand sight?"

"What?" answered he.

"Why, this glorious time of the year."

"Eh! I thought you referred to that old gentleman who fell on the sidewalk just now. Let's get near the fire; I'm chilly."

"Dear!" said she.

"Well!" abruptly returned he, poking the glowing embers vigorously.

"Don't you think that Winter is monarch of the seasons?"

"Let the poets rave about Spring, with her violet-sandaled feet all wet with dew. About Summer in her wheaten garlands bound. Or Autumn stained with juice of purple grape. Do they all compare with icy crowned Winter? But what is your opinion of this beautiful day?"

"I think—"

"O, it is superb! No wonder Shakespeare has said, 'Be thou as pure as snow.' Look how the playful wind circles the downy fleece! Come, dear, to the window."

He came reluctantly. She said rapturously:

"Now what do you think of this day?"

"I think that it would be a splendid day to track rabbits!"

Both were mute for an hour, and a half.—Louisville Courier Journal.

Important Sale of Short Horns.

From George W. Peck's Sun, Milwaukee.

It is the pleasure of the Sun to announce to its many readers, that May 30th, there will be the most important sale of Short Horns that has ever been held in this State. Mr. H. B. Sherman, proprietor of the Plankinton House, and of that Eden on Dodge County, known as Spring Brook Farm, will furnish the cattle. He will also furnish a few of his celebrated imported Percheron Draft Horses, that are so well known over the country. It is getting so now days that a farmer who is worth anything, and has got a farm that he is proud of, is ashamed to let a neighbor in the city see his cow, and now that the thoroughbred short horns have come into style, cows are raised pure, and many of them would grace a palace to a better advantage than some human beings. At this sale there will be about forty females sold, from calves to aged animals, also five bulls, from calves to yearlings, and no farmer that expects to move in good cow society should fail to attend the sale.

Mr. Sherman's sale of blooded stock will take place May 30th, 1878, at Spring Brook Farm, a mile from Burnett Junction, Dodge County, Wisconsin, on the line of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, and on the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, and the same distance from Rolling Prairie on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway. Carriages will be at the trains to convey visitors to the farm, where they will be entertained while attending the sale. Parties desiring catalogues of the stock can obtain them by sending their address to H. B. Sherman, Plankinton house, Milwaukee, or to Spring Brook Farm. Those desiring to examine the sale before the sale are invited to visit the farm any time before May 30th. Most of the stock has been bred on the farm, from the most fashionable strains of Short-horns, and are registered in the American herd book.

Circulation of New York Papers.

From the Cleveland Herald.

An exchange gives the circulation of the leading New York daily papers as follows: Sun, 110,000; Herald, 75,000; News, 50,000; Times, 30,000; Tribune, 25,000; World, 8,000; Star, 15,000; Post, 4,500; Commercial, 6,000; Express, 8,000; Mail, 5,000. It is a noteworthy fact that the Evening Post, with the smallest circulation on the list, is constantly filled with the best class of advertisements. The reason for this is that it reaches the best class of readers. It is the character of a newspaper's circulation much more than its extent that determines its value as an advertising medium.

Adjournment of the English Parliament—Fears that the Government Precipitate War.

LONDON, April 17—5 a. m.—Parliament has adjourned for three weeks, with the Eastern Question still unsettled, and the fear is very general that war may be rendered inevitable by the acts of the Government before Parliament again assembles. Germany's efforts at conciliation seem to have been directed toward Austria, and there are strong indications that Russia and Austria will agree upon some mutually satisfactory modification of the Treaty of San Stefano, leaving England, again isolated, to get what terms she can. It is probable that three weeks cannot pass without the culmination of Anglo-Russian difficulties either in the certainty of war or of peace. The present state of feverish anxiety must soon be ended one way or the other. It is regarded as almost certain that hostilities between Russia and Rumania must break out unless a Congress be agreed to very soon, and this probability adds to the general feeling of alarm.

ANOTHER REPORT.

LONDON, April 16.—The situation has again grown gloomy, as has often been the case before. This time, apparently, scarcely a ray of hope remains. All the London morning journals agree as to the gravity of the situation. The Standard's Berlin correspondent says that England and Russia are as far as ever from an understanding. The Daily News' Berlin telegrams confirm this view, and then another regards the situation as extremely serious. He declares that the English Cabinet stands alone, utterly isolated. Mr. J. A. Macgregan, the correspondent of the Daily News at San Stefano, telegraphs that the situation is strained to the utmost. The Grand Duke Nicholas is depressed and gloomy. The correspondent says: "The first gun may be fired at any moment. The great powers are only too surely drifting into war."

The Journal des Debats of Paris, says: "It is useless to indulge in any illusion respecting the gravity of the present state of affairs. We are, perhaps, on the eve of a great war, and amidst a movement so violent that it threatens to carry everything before it. Germany is the only State sufficiently powerful to arrest the headlong course of events, and magnanimous enough to oblige it to retreat. It will have failed in the duty imposed upon it by its military and diplomatic power."

From the above you will perceive the justification for the pessimist view now prevailing.

TILTON-BEECHER.

Plymouth Church and the Confession of Tilton—What the Intervened-Further Litigation in Prospect.

NEW YORK, April 16.—The members of Plymouth church are not of a mind on the question of the advisability of making the confession the basis of another church investigation. A few think the case should be reopened. A few are in favor of treating the matter with contempt. The majority are vacillating and refuse to express an opinion. There is a similar difference of judgment as to whether it will be best to summon Mrs. Tilton before the Examining Committee, with a view of dropping her name from the roll. Many are in favor of it, but others seem anxious to find excuses for this erring sister. The men speak of her as one to be pitied, as insane or under some irresistible influence while the women, with singular unanimity assert that she is suffering from the mania inseparable from a change of life. Mr. White, the Treasurer of the church, is the most outspoken in favor of another investigation. He cannot see how it can be avoided. Mrs. Tilton, at least, he thinks, should be summarily proceeded against, and being put in an answer to the charges, a formal accusation of guilt against her pastor, the church would be bound to take it up. Mr. White is in favor of "taking the bull by the horns" and effectually disposing of the matter if possible.

New York, April 16.—That some further litigation will follow Mrs. Tilton's confession is generally conceded, but it is not definitely known in what shape it will be brought up. The first step, it is believed, will be taken by Plymouth Church. Some members of the church will make a charge against Mrs. Tilton, accusing her of having slandered her pastor. The charge will have to be investigated by the Examining Committee, who will report to the congregation. It is not believed by the members of Plymouth church that Mrs. Tilton will make any defense.

The trial of Mr. Beecher upon the action brought against him by Theodore Tilton, to recover $50,000, is held to be still in abeyance, as the jury failed to agree, and a new jury can be impeached, and the whole evidence brought out again, with the addition of Mrs. Tilton's confession.

Appearances Sometimes Deceive.

He was rather an unattractive looking individual, and as he sauntered into the store the crowd sitting on the barrels winked at each other, and made remarks about his person.

"Where did it come from?" asked one, pointing at him.

"Somebody left the door open, and it blew in," said another.

"Took it and see," suggested a fourth.

"Yes, it's a man—see it more," quipped the first.

All hands laughed boisterously.

"I'm a poor man, and I don't want to have any trouble with anybody."

"Then the biggest man in the house poured some oil on his hat and lighted it."

Then the clerk hit him under the nose with a codfish.

Then that man quietly put the little volume into his coat-tail pocket, and the clerk went head first into the molasses barrel.

When the biggest man in the house picked himself from under the counter, it was next to an impossibility to guess where his nose had been.

"The next time you folks pick me up for a slouch, look out you ain't in the wrong pew. Good day, fellers."

The clerk is waiting for them to come round and settle for the damage done, but they must have forgotten where the place is, as they pass right by without looking in, and their bills remain unpaid.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1878.
CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFLETS.

—Round the Round Table to-night.
—Rev. S. D. Thomas, of Elkhorn, paid the city a flying visit, to-day.

—Some one ought to induce the moon to don a red-ribbon. It is pretty full.
—Thomas, the shoeman, is moving to-day to his new store on the next block east of the old location.

—Westward the scales of justice take their way, all of the shops having now deserted the East side of the river.

—Mr. Willard Antiel of this city has concluded to look about California for an attractive home, and has started thither.
—The mail wagon has been fitted up with a new jacket of paint, and a white top, and looks as neat and attractive as the brush can make it.

—M. Hanson & Co., have something to say to the public about the furniture business, and speak for themselves in another column. See what they say.

—The funeral of John Brown, the young man who was run over by the cars and killed near Harvard, took place at St. Patrick's church, this afternoon.

—S. Sherman, one of D. M. Ferry & Co's. best representatives on the road selling seeds, has been paying Janesville a flying visit of business and pleasure combined.

—J. W. West, Superintendent of Schools for the First District of Rock county, has changed his residence and consequently his postoffice address from Footville to Evansville.

—John H. Myers, son of the proprietor of the Myers house, is at home on a visit from Chicago, where he and his brother-in-law, Mr. Sam Dye, have been engaged in the jewelry business.

—The Musical Club met last evening as announced, and carried out the programme already published. The audience was of goodly size, and the exercises doubtless profitable to all.

—Another Janesville victory. The contractors Nowlan & Wilcox have received the contract for building an $18,000 Court House at Black River Falls, they being the lowest of eight bidders.

—Some of the fond papas and mamas of the city could occasionally learn some new facts about their darlings by taking a sly evening stroll around the Court House and High School grounds. Try it.

—The glass in the lamp-posts are being washed to-day. As long as the nights were dark and dreary it was not necessary, but it will be a marked improvement during these bright moonlight evenings.

—One of the aldermen last night surprised his friends by donning a red ribbon but the morning thirst was too much for his spasmodic resolution for good, and his button-hole was speedily pulled back-headed.

—T. J. Cairns & Bro. have not only put a new front in their store, but have been getting in a large stock of new goods which will merit inspection. See what they have to say to the public, as found in another column.

—Mr. Watson was jubilantly showing to his friends to-day a picture of his son Henry, as he appears full-decked and full-fledged in the garb of a Brooklyn policeman. Henry makes quite a stunning looking "cop."

—It is now just betwixt and between and the dashing young man can take the dashing young lady out for a stroll without being shamed into squandering any money on either oysters or ice-cream. Both a little out of season.

—The St. Patrick's Total Abstinence and Benevolent Association will give a dance at their hall in Young America block next Monday evening. The bars of Lent will be let down by that time, and there will be no hindrance to a jolly good time.

—Whalen, of the street gang who struck, tired of bread and water diet and returned to his shanty yesterday afternoon. Kelly, one of Beloit's hard ones, who was of a similar turn of mind, hung out a half day longer, but wilted this morning, and joined the gang who are to-day at work on Main street.

—Rev. Frank C. Haddock and wife, of Watertown, spent a few hours in Janesville yesterday. Mr. Haddock is a son of Rev. G. C. Haddock, of Oshkosh, and is pastor of the Methodist church at Watertown where he is reported as doing efficient work. He was formerly pastor of the church at Milton.

—Mr. Beecher, of Chicago, who is to take the local editorship of the Recorder, is on the ground and has entered upon his duties. He has a pleasing appearance, and a large practical newspaper experience, and it is to be hoped that he will find his stay in Janesville sufficiently pleasing to induce him to make it of a lengthy duration.

—F. A. Bennett's marble works are still keeping up the appearance of lively times. One of the reasons is that he is placing his prices so low that none can underbid him. Those desiring first-class work and equally first-class material, should take a look at his advertisement, and then take a look at him, and then take a look at his figures.

—The St. George's Benevolent Association held its annual meeting last night and elected its officers for the ensuing year: President—W. K. Colling. First Vice President—W. G. King. Second Vice President—R. Shepard. Treasurer—H. Rogers. Secretary—W. Bladen. Trustees—William Fox, B. Spence and William Sillito.

—Two lads had a lively tussle this morning, on Milwaukee street, and were just about getting in their work on each other in a vigorous manner when in a few minutes more would have furnished a goodly item for the local, when ex-Justice Phelps put in an appearance and spoiled it all by separating the contestants. If the ex-Justice wants to call down upon his head the everlasting wrath of the newspaper fraternity, let him continue to be a peace-maker.

—Miss Estilda Lachapelle was in the city yesterday by her agent trying to arrange for a walk in this city. She emphatically denies the statement that she did not make a fair, square walk at Monroe, and claims to be able to prove the charge wholly false. This morning she started on foot for Beloit, where she proposes to commence a fifty miles walk Saturday at 11 o'clock in the morning, she agreeing to make the distance in twelve hours. She proposes now to visit Janesville next week for a hundred mile walk in twenty-four hours, closing Saturday night.

—A postal received from Johnnie Ward, of the Binghamton Crickets, says that in last Monday's game with the Hornellsville, the Crickets stood 4 and the latter 3. Ward, although still unable to use his thumb, pitched throughout the game. John Morrissey was in no condition to play, but expected to tackle third base in the Tuesday's game. Monday's game was an exciting one. As the Crickets contain so many Janesville boys, the record of the Club will be watched with unusual interest.

—A letter has been received from New York, dated Sunday last, stating that there is little hope for the recovery of Mr. Tallman. His trouble of the heart is such that he can get but little rest day or night, and there is no chance to use opiates to secure sleep, as their use would in his case be attended with great danger. His physicians are trying to build up his strength enough to permit of his being brought to his home in this city, and hope to be able to do so, but as to his recovery they deem that very doubtful.

—Wm. Alney, better known as "Greasy" Bill, was before Justice Prichard to-day to answer to the charge of robbery. The examination was postponed until to-morrow afternoon, bail being fixed at $400. He explains the fact of his having in his possession an ugly looking "billy" by saying that in his capacity as bartender at the Arcade, he deemed it necessary to be properly armed so that he could insist on maintaining good order, if occasion demanded. One thump from that billy in the hands of that Bill would place almost anyone where they couldn't help but be orderly.

—The sad news reached the city yesterday afternoon, that Michael Welch, a young man who is well known in this city, had died at Norwalk, where he went about two weeks ago, to work for Mr. John Watson, the contractor engaged in digging a tunnel near that place. It appears that Welch was taken sick about the time he reached Norwalk, his difficulty being inflammation of the bowels, which proved fatal. His remains reached this city at 4 o'clock this morning. He was a member of St. Patrick's temperance society, and was an exemplary and respected young man. The funeral will take place at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Welch, corner of Pleasant and Pearl streets, at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

—During the past six years Mr. J. A. Blount has been a member of the Common Council representing the Fourth Ward. His term of service closed on Monday with the old Council. During these years he has rendered the city conspicuous service. No member of the Council more thoroughly understood the affairs of the city than he, and no member worked more faithfully, with less selfishness, or with greater ability for the best interests of the city government.

—The father of E. E. Hatch, Esq., arrived from Croftsbury, Vermont, last week and will spend some time with his children in this place.

—George B. Tallman, the father of the Delevan Republican, spent the Sabbath with his Clinton relations, and shedding as usual light and knowledge wherever he goes.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Livingston has purchased and is now occupying the Hammond house.

—R. J. Hartshorn has rented the Chandler house, owned by Colonel Luman.

—The masons are now plastering E. J. Waskinson's house so that it will soon be ready for occupancy.

—Miss Grace Fraebie commenced teaching school in Bradford Monday morning, being her first effort, and success is predicted.

—The Clinton cheese factory opened doors for business on Monday morning, the 15th inst., under the supervision of Prof. Florida. About 1,300 pounds of milk were received.

—On Saturday the 6th inst., Mrs. Freeman Carlisle, after a very brief illness, and was buried on the Monday following. Rev. Mr. Marston, of Norwood Park, Illinois, officiated. Mrs. Carlisle was about 65 years of age at the time of her death and was highly esteemed among her neighbors and friends for her many endearing virtues of head and heart.

—Several of our young people are again away at Beloit, Madison, Oshkosh and other places, attending the spring term of school.

—Rev. R. C. Bond and wife, who have been spending the past winter in Virginia, arrived home on Monday.

—The friends of Elder Warner made him a surprise dinner on the occasion of his birthday, on Friday last. About one hundred persons assembled in the basement church during the forenoon, bringing with them a bountiful supply of the good things of life, which in due time was transferred to the spacious tables, until they fairly groined under the weight.

—At the proper time a committee, composed of Mr. Ira Burdick and wife, of Janesville, who were visiting at the home of the reverend gentleman and his wife, and invited them to dine with a few friends at the church. The scene awaiting them was a surprise, although enjoyed with a more relish. All in all, it was a very pleasant time, and one which it will pay to repeat when occasion offers.

—Mrs. Spaulding is spending a week or two with friends at Oconomowoc, before returning East.

—The exhibition of dime entertainment given by the ladies as a benefit for the Temple of Honor, on Thursday night last, came off as advertised, and was a complete success, both in attendance, interest and finances. The hall was comfortably filled, and the exercises composed of recitations, dialogues, tableaux etc., were well prepared and well executed. The music was furnished by Messrs. Thaw and Larwin, and Mrs. G. H. and C. S. Burton, assisted on the organ by Mrs. L. Greenman and Hattie Butts, and was heartily enjoyed by all present. After the exercises, the audience was invited below, where a bountiful repast was spread, to which at least 150 persons did ample justice. The proceeds of the evening are to be used in the purchase of a banner for the Temple whose work in the behalf of temperance is being well appreciated in the community.

—O. D. Vincent sold the boss cow to Thorp Brothers on the 14th inst., for beef. She weighed 1,370 pounds. We think it will be hard to beat this weight.

—Our public school opened again on Monday, under the management of H. C. Curtis and Miss M. Mount. In the upper room 32 are already enrolled; in the lower room 40. Everything bids fair to be a pleasant term. The success of our late exhibition procured a fresh incentive to many to excel during the present term.

—Alternate rain and snow each day and shows himself dead in earnest, and succeeds in holding his hearers wonderfully. Those who have not heard him should improve the earliest opportunity of doing so.

GETTING READY FOR WORK.

The New Board of Education Elects Officers and Prepares for Another Year—The Teachers to be Chosen To-night.

The new Board of Education met last evening for the purpose of organization, there being all the members present, they being, S. Clark Burnham, Lewis Hunt, J. W. St. John, James Shearer, and J. B. Whiting.

Mr. James Shearer was temporarily chosen as Chairman and S. Clark Burnham as Secretary, and the formal election was proceeded with, resulting in the election of Lewis Hunt as President and James Shearer as Clerk.

Messrs. Whiting and Shearer, being authorized to examine the books of the retiring Clerk, reported them as being correct, which report was adopted.

The tuition received from scholars living outside of the districts in which they attended school was reported by the Clerk as having been $88.43.

The salary of the clerk for the coming year was fixed at $300.

The services of Prof. Silabee, as teacher of penmanship, were dispensed with, and adjournment was taken until this evening when the appointment of teachers, and other necessary work preliminary to the opening of the new term will be attended to.

EVANSVILLE.
—Seeding in this vicinity is nearly completed although the recent heavy rains have hindered the farmers to some extent. There has been more wheat sown this year than for many years past and it is looking finely.

—The severe wind storm on Wednesday last week, did quite an amount of damage to shade trees, windmills, etc.

—Miss Fanny Porter is teaching in District number 2, in Porter. Her school commenced last Monday.

—Improvements seem to be the order of the day at present in this usually quiet village.

—W. R. Case has built a large addition to his already pleasant hotel.

—Mr. Eager, of the firm of Smith and Eager, is building an addition to his house and a new barn.

—Mr. George Potter is building three new houses.

—The carriages which have recently been displayed on our Main street, seem to be rather slow, perhaps the effect of hard times.

—E. Devereaux is busy as usual making extensive improvements in his cheese factory for the coming season, as he expects to have facilities for a thousand cows.

—Henry Campbell commenced this week the erection of a new residence on his farm, one and a half miles east of the village.

CLINTON.
—Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carpenter, of Rockford, Illinois, visited Clinton this week and were warmly greeted by a host of old friends.

—Mrs. Smith is improving her house by building a veranda on the south side.

—Workmen are dismantling S. J. Simmons' house preparatory to moving it away so as to make room for a new and elegant residence.

—The father of E. E. Hatch, Esq., arrived from Croftsbury, Vermont, last week and will spend some time with his children in this place.

—George B. Tallman, the father of the Delevan Republican, spent the Sabbath with his Clinton relations, and shedding as usual light and knowledge wherever he goes.

CITY NOTICES.

Spaulding's Glue, up to the sticking point.

Check a Cough or Cold at once and use an old reliable remedy such as Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup. Price 25 cents, large size 50 cents. Sold by E. B. Heimstreet.

"Prices to suit the times," together with every comfort the most fastidious could ask or desire, and the most delicate attention to every want has made the Colonnade the hotel of Philadelphia, April 15th.

Endorsed by the people as a safe, reliable, harmless and cheap remedy—Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup, for Coughs, Colds, etc. Price 25 cents a bottle, large size 50 cents. Sold by E. B. Heimstreet.

Sharp competition is the order of the day, among the first class hotels in New York. With one or two exceptions, they are trying to keep their old trade while adhering to their previous high prices. The Grand Central has responded most promptly to this by quietly "cutting" the rates from one to two dollars per day. April 15th.

Dunbar's Wonderful Discovery.—Be-the-dia Water, the acknowledged cure of Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Kidney Affections of all natures and kinds, Dropsy, Incontinence of Urine, Bilious Affections, Dyspepsia and Gouty Swellings. E. B. HEIMSTREET, Sole Agent for this City.

BRITISH BRILLIANT SOAP contains a large percentage of Brilliant Soap, the great natural cleanser and beautifier. The Toilet Soap is prepared especially for use at the toilet, in the nursery and bath, and possesses great cleansing and purifying qualities. The Household Soap, while offered in less expensive form, is every bit as pure and wholesome. Sold by A. J. Roberts, Croft & Shearer, and H. C. Stearns. April 15th.

A CARD.
To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House New York City. April 15th.

A Remarkable Result.
It makes no difference how many physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, etc., who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To all such we would say that 25,000 doctors sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all druggists in America. Dec 30th-1877.

A Pardonable Pride.
Prompts most people to delay, by any laudable means that science affords, the evidences of physical decay. Who that is in perfect health would not match the bright eye, the active mind, and other appearances of youthful vigor, with the luxuriance, the rich color and beauty of youthful hair? Parker's Hair Balsam stands pre-eminent as an elegant hair dressing, and by its healthful action on the roots not only promotes a luxuriant growth of the young hair, but infallibly restores gray or faded hair to the original youthful color, giving a rich and lustrous appearance of great beauty. No other preparation so effectively removes dandruff or stops falling of the hair; its cooling and healing action entirely curing itching and humors of the scalp, and keeping the skin clean, white and healthy. It is perfectly harmless, exqu岸ely perfumed, and contains nothing that will soil the skin or gum the hair. It is not a dye, and is unequalled for excellence and purity. Buy a bottle from your druggist A. J. Roberts, Janesville, Wis., and test its merits. April 15th-1878.

MISCELLANEOUS.
New York Mercury.
FORTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.

For forty years the New York Mercury has been before the public a welcome guest throughout the length and breadth of the land. The Pioneer of Weekly Journalism, it has kept pace with the march of improvement and progress. As in the Past so in the Future, it proposes to retain its rank as the LEADING LITERARY, FAMILY AND MISCELLANEOUS JOURNAL OF THE AGE.

Originality is a prominent feature, especially in literary columns. Its Serial Stories are by the Best Authors, its extensive list of contributors embracing the names of the most celebrated AMERICAN AND FOREIGN WRITERS OF FICTION.

The Mercury has achieved a National Reputation for its Selections of Romance and Real Life, a field in which it has no rival. Another specialty is its TABLE-TALK DEPARTMENT.

In which appears regularly the "best thoughts of the best minds," overflowing with diverting anecdotes, vivacious poetry, and quaint comments.

THE HOME CIRCLE.
While the Ladies are also always sure to find in the Mercury articles of living interest to the sex. Children are catered to in a manner designed to instruct as well as amuse.

RECORD OF PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.
The Mercury gives every item of public or personal importance in the Theatrical, Musical, Athletic and Variety World. Its correspondents, who cover both Hemispheres—ever faithful and industrious—contribute regularly a full, comprehensive, and reliable budget of information superior in accuracy and scope to that of any Journal published.

SPECIAL FEATURES.
The Mercury is the only recognized favorite of the Volunteer and Paid Fire Departments of the United States and Canada, as it does promptly and exhaustively, all attainable facts and gossip. During the season of our four sports many columns are devoted to the favorite game of Baseball. Its reports of games, and its tabular records of plays and scores, are the best published. THE NEWS AND GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

Always embraces special articles on timely and interesting topics; editorials, condensed news items, humorous paragraphs, etc., etc. Altogether, in point of variety, quantity and quality, the New York Mercury is unsurpassed by any Journal in the World.
